Danielle Klevorn

Danielle grew up dancing since the age of 3 and competitively at Charmette Academy of Dance and Stars of Tomorrow Dance Company since the age of 5. She attended Missouri State University where she was a four-year member on the dance team along with serving as a captain for two years. After graduating from college, she grew a passion for teaching and choreographing following in her mother's footsteps who is one of the owners of the studio. Danielle joined Charmette once again and is now the Assistant Director and choreographer for their award-winning teams. In addition, she has recently become a freelance choreographer for Weissman's where she helps choreograph dancers in costumes and dance wear. Danielle is also the Varsity Head Coach for the Kirkwood High School dance team. As a performer, choreographer and teacher, Danielle has knowledge and experience in all phases of dance, and we are honored to have her judging for us this weekend in Tulsa.
